Replication, take-up and deployment

Arianna Americo, Eurocities

Why Replication and Deployment?

Support cities

We want to support cities address real-life challenges in the urban mobility realm

Transfer knowledge

We want to create an environment for knowledge sharing between peers and urban mobility experts

Exploit best practices

We want to capitalize on the experiences from CIVITAS projects and the cities involved in them

Boost solutions uptake

We want to upscale the deployment of solutions tested and developed in CIVITAS projects

How will it work?

Challenge cities

- Select 6 Challenge cities that want to address a concrete urban mobility challenge
- Match them in twinning pairs and connect them with Champion cities
- Each Challenge city will host a site visit to co-create solutions for their challenge and participate in a visit to their twin city

Champion cities

- Select 12 Champion cities that want to share their best practices and expertise
- Match them with Challenge cities to create venues for replication
- Each Champion city will join one site visit and participate in one co-creation workshop

Take up and transfer activities:

Twinning sessions

Co-creation workshops

Site Visits

Deployment plans

Why should your city apply?

As a Challenge city you will:

- Get a chance to meet and exchange with peers facing similar challenges
- Get insights from experts and practitioners on how to solve your mobility challenge
- Get support in developing a concrete deployment plan to address your challenge

As a Champion city you will:

- Get a chance to share with peers the results and hiccups from projects you implemented
- Support the exploitation and replication of results from CIVITAS projects you have been involved in
- Visit a fellow city and support them in co-creating solutions for their urban mobility challenge

Programme cycle

Whole cycle will run twice

Check out the call for applications:

Deadline to apply:
21/11/23

Slido poll #UMD2023

Would your city be interested in applying to join the CIVITAS Replication and Deployment programme?

- Yes, it would be interesting to apply as Champion city
- Yes, it would be interesting to apply as Challenge city
- Maybe. I would like to receive more information on the programme
- No, I don't think this would be useful for my city
